SYMPHONY TACOMA DESIRES TO ENGAGE ARTIST UNDER THE FOLLOWING TERMS AND CONDITIONS

1. PERFORMANCE. ARTIST will perform as a guest narrator with SYMPHONY TACOMA.
2. ENGAGEMENT.
 - a. Dress Rehearsal Sunday, April 28, 2024 at 12:30pm
 - b. Performance Sunday, April 28, 2024 at 2:30 pm
 - c. Location Schneebeck Hall, Music Building
University of Puget Sound
3. REPERTOIRE. Beach: Carnival, Prokofiev: Peter and the Wolf
4. COMPENSATION. In consideration for the Artist's performance of all the terms of this agreement, SYMPHONY TACOMA shall pay the sum of $500 (Five Hundred Dollars). Payment shall be made by company check payable to the order of the Artist, following the performance.
5. RECORDING. SYMPHONY TACOMA shall have the right to record and to allow 1 non-commercial, public radio broadcast of the recording of the concert. ARTIST shall not be entitled to further compensation for any such live stream, recording or broadcast.
6. PUBLIC HEALTH. If a public health issue, including an epidemic or pandemic, poses a risk to SYMPHONY TACOMA musicians, ARTIST and/or the public, either party may cancel and/or reschedule the performance regardless of federal, state, and local orders and/or regulations with no financial penalty. SYMPHONY TACOMA may also cancel, without penalty, any concert which has been affected by an act of regulation by a public authority that limits access to venues, sets audience limits, requires distancing that limits SYMPHONY TACOMA's ability to rehearse/perform, or mandates safety procedures that severely affect the instrumentation of the orchestra. Upon such cancellation, all parties will make their best efforts to reschedule the performance within a reasonable timeframe. If the performance is not able to be rescheduled, any deposits paid, or un-refundable travel expenses incurred will be returned in a timely fashion and all parties are released from all other obligations contained in this contract.
7. CANCELLATION. In the event the ARTIST fails to appear at any rehearsal or performance, this agreement shall terminate, and SYMPHONY TACOMA shall have no further obligation to the ARTIST. If SYMPHONY TACOMA is obliged to cancel, for any reason, all or part of its concert season, the Orchestra may cancel this Agreement upon notice thereof given to the ARTIST. In the event of serious illness, force majeure, or any other unforeseeable circumstance which renders the fulfillment of this agreement impossible by either party, it shall be considered null and void.
